-------------------	----------------------------------	---------------------

GOVERNMENT INFORMATION OFFICES are located at the following points: Regina (down town office), Saskatoon, Moose Jaw, Prince Albert, Swift Current, Yorkton, North Battleford, Maple Creek, Estevan and Melfort. These Offices excepting Regina, Moose Jaw and Saskatoon, will remain open during the motor Touring season only, and are for the convenience of tourists who may require information as to routes, roads and other matters of importance to them on their trip. Maps, Booklets, etc., will be kept on hand in these Offices for distribution over the counter, but, as stated previously, all written requests for information, routing, maps, etc., should be addressed to Headquarters Office, Legislative Building, Regina, where they will receive immediate attention.

The staff of the Bureau will be pleased to render courteous and prompt service and it is hoped that visitors will take advantage of the convenience provided to make their trip pleasant in every respect.

Headquarters Office is prepared to supply Maps, Booklets, etc., together with suggested routes to or from any point in Saskatchewan from or to anywhere on the continent; these routes will be indicated on maps of the territory through which it is proposed to travel. Every effort will be made to select such routes as may contribute the greatest amount of interest and pleasure possible for visitors.

HON. C. M. DUNN,
Minister of Highways and Transportation, Charge of Office of King's Printer, and Bureau of Publications.

NOTE—Consult the South Map for Official Appointments for the South half of the Province.
